Aviva and Avraham Simcha Adler

CO-GUESTS OF HONOR

Aviva and Avraham Simcha have been key members of the Ohr HaTorah community for many years. Avraham Simcha has served as both the vice-president and the secretary of the Shul, spanning the period of the Shul's growth and expansion through its purchase of the youth house. Avraham Simcha has overseen many of the Shul's legal needs, including the formalization of the Shul's structure and bylaws, and he has been active in coordinating many of the Shul's shiurim and other programming. Avraham Simcha also helped build from scratch a number of the Shul's most popular programs, including helping create the Friday Night Beis Medrash program and establishing the annual Kol Nidrei appeal, and also co-led the Shabbos morning groups for two years. Avraham Simcha and Aviva are passionate about knowing and befriending nearly all members of the Shul and the broader community, indicative of the Adlers' general outreach and hospitality. Aviva and Avraham Simcha were instrumental in establishing the Shul's annual dinner, serving as co-chairs for the first two dinners, and have been integral members of the dinner committee the past few years helping to maintain its continued success.

Avraham Simcha also serves as a board member for RYNJ. Aviva has also been active in many of the Shul's events and the Sisterhood, and she has served on the Mishloach Manot committee and assisted with the planning of the annual Hachnas Orchim Shabbos. The Adlers have passed down the wonderful spirit of being involved with the Shul to their children as well, with Talya and Nechama working as group leaders for the Shul's Shabbos morning groups program.

Avraham Simcha is an Executive Director and Associate General Counsel at PTC Therapeutics, Inc. and Aviva is a dentist and the Associate Dental Director of Ezras Cholim Health Center. The Adlers are the proud parents of Talya, Nechama, Eliana and Kovi.

Tamar and Naftalee Zomberg

CO-GUESTS OF HONOR

The Zombergs are one of the most involved families in the Ohr HaTorah community. From the moment that they moved onto Greenbriar Street, Tamar and Naftalee have volunteered in a multitude of capacities. Naftalee served as the president of the shul and organized many projects to encourage learning for our children and adults alike. Naftalee also led the early efforts to expand the shul, raise funds, and purchase the adjoining property. The Zombergs were extremely involved in the early days of the youth department, with Naftalee running the post-davening Shabbos morning groups with Torah, stories, and the occasional puppet show and Tamar coordinating the snacks and cleanup of the shul. Naftalee and Tamar are known for their Hachnasas Orchim and warmth, and have developed new member programming focused on welcoming others and making the shul feel more like a family. For many years, the Zombergs have undertaken the arduous effort of compiling, continuously updating, and delivering the shul's membership directory, and helped issue the shul's official family photo book last year. Naftalee also helps review all shul announcements and communications, and has given shiurim over the years to the children on Shavuot night. Tamar was a member of the Mishloach Manos committee and helped pack the shul's Simchas Torah candy bags for many years. She is consistently one of the first to help out with shul events, whether that entails purchasing food, making phone calls, or making deliveries for shul projects. Tamar also volunteers on the RYNJ welcoming committee to help new families get acclimated to the school.

Naftalee is the SVP of Finance and Treasurer at the Lightstone Group, a real estate development firm in New York, and Tamar is a speech therapist in Bergen County and works to help so many of the children in our local yeshivos. The Zombergs are the proud parents of Noam, Dov, Nava and Eli.

Eileen and Jordan Silvestri

COMMUNITY SERVICE AWARD

Jordan and Eileen have been the faces of Ohr HaTorah's youth department and beloved members of the community for several years. As the original directors of the shul's youth department, Jordan and Eileen bring tremendous energy to the roles, with tireless dedication to enhance the experience of the youngest members of Ohr HaTorah. That spirit is regularly on display not only with our Shabbos groups, but also through the countless hours invested to create shul programming during the Chagim and throughout the year.

The Silvestris further looked to fill needs for the shul, mostly notably when they spearheaded the inclusion program for the youth groups, partnering with Yachad to make our shul a warm, welcome place for everyone. Listening to the happy shouts in the Youth House is one clear way to see the benefit of the Silvestris' impact as well. Each week, the older divisions are treated to Jordan's divrei Torah, while Eileen reviews aspects of Shabbos with the girls as well. Between the various learning programs all year round, Motzei Shabbos learning, and the hundreds of community children who participate in our Shavuos learning, the impact they have made is permanent. Jordan and Eileen are also wonderful role models for our youth leaders, leading by example and transitioning the future of the youth department to the next generation. This effect is not limited solely to our children - Jordan and Eileen have dedicated much of their adult lives to helping and positively influencing so many other Jewish children. Jordan is the Dean of Students at Ramaz Lower School and before that, he was the Director of Sinai's high school at Heichal HaTorah. Eileen has spent many years as a Morah at RYNJ, and is wonderful at bringing out the best in our children. The Silvestris are the proud parents of Chayli and Yakira Eliana.

Letter from Rabbi Sobolofsky

To dear friends of Ohr HaTorah, Avraham Simcha and Aviva, Naftalee and Tamar, Jordan and Eileen, we are so honored to celebrate the achievements of our shul together with all of you. It is your devotion to Ohr HaTorah that has enabled us to continue to grow and flourish in so many ways. Your dedication to our youth, our new members, and the practical aspects of enabling our Shul to function in an efficient manner is greatly appreciated by all of us. May HaShem continue to bless you to be successful in all of your endeavors and we look forward to continue to be recipients of your guidance in helping Ohr HaTorah continue to grow and flourish.

Message from the Officers

Dear Members and Friends,

We would like to take this opportunity to welcome you to Ohr HaTorah's fifth annual dinner. Ohr HaTorah has established itself to be a beautiful Makom Tefila and Bais Medrash, with inspiring Shiurim by our Rav. Our families are blessed to have Rabbi and Rebbetzin Sobolofsky as role models and leaders of our community.

At this time, we would like to wish a Mazel Tov to Aviva and Avraham Simcha Adler and Tamar and Naftalee Zomberg on their well deserved honor. From the early days of the Shul, you both have been the driving force behind our Shul's accomplishments. Your commitment and dedication as pillars in our community have made an everlasting impact in our Shul.

We also recognize Eileen and Jordan Silvestri with the Community Service award. They have led OHT youth and served as inspiring role models for the next generation. The entire community is extraordinarily grateful for your dedication.

We conclude by asking everyone to get involved as Ohr HaTorah continues to grow. We have a unique opportunity as our community expands over the coming years. There is a direct correlation between success of the OHT community and involvement of the membership. There are many ways to get involved - please speak with any of the board members. With Hashem's help, may we continue down an exciting path towards our new home, and continue to be a source of inspiration and Makom Tefilah and Torah for our families.

The Officers and Directors of Ohr HaTorah

Letter from the Dinner Committee

On behalf of the Dinner Committee, we would like to thank the many Ohr HaTorah families and friends who have contributed to the success of our 5th dinner and journal campaign.

We are pleased to recognize Avraham Simcha and Aviva Adler and Tamar and Naftalee Zomberg as this year's co-guests of honor and Jordan and Eileen Silvestri who are accepting the community service award. Both the Adler and Zomberg families have devoted and continue to devote countless hours to our shul on a daily basis and are true examples as Bnei Torah and Ovdei Hashem. They have helped build Ohr HaTorah to the Makom Torah it is today. We are truly grateful to Jordan and Eileen for using their amazing talents to help build the youth department of Ohr HaTorah. They have created a fun and exciting environment for the children with Torah values in mind.

Thank you to all of the dedicated volunteers who have each utilized their collective strengths and helped us in almost every aspect of the planning and preparation of the dinner over many months. We are especially grateful to the Ohr HaTorah president, Gabe Hanauer and his wife Sassy, Sarah Savetsky, Avrumi Tabacznik, Yaakov Rosenberg, Daniel Shor, Michele Moskowitz, Jason Jacobs, Steven Schuh, Ronn Yaish and Yitz Novak for all their work ensuring the success of this evening.

Thank you all for your continued support and generosity.

Rachael Swinkin

Elana Zachter

Dinner Chairs

From the Honorees

Thank you to our parents
Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel and Helen Adler
& Mr. and Mrs. David and Sarah Friedman

For your endless love, support and dedication to our family.

Each in your own way has taught us by example what it means to be involved in a community and the importance of Chesed. You have instilled in us a desire to devote our time and efforts to give back to our communities and be a role model for our children the way you have been us.

In loving memory of our grandparents, of blessed memory, who are no longer with us and in honor of our grandmother, Mrs. Dorit Adler, may she continue to have strength ad meah v'esrim, for all they have done and continue to do for us.

Thank you to our siblings, Moshe and Yael Friedman, Rivka and Baruch Stein, Mirel and Moshe Stavsky, Shoshana and Yitzi Genack, Basya and Jonathan Teitelbaum and Gershi Adler for all of your love, guidance and support.

In honor of our dear children,
Nechama, Talya, Eliana and Kovi

Thank you for your patience and understanding. We know it is hard to share the limited time you have with us, but we know that you understand the importance the Shul and other institutions play in our collective lives. We are so proud to see you begin to give back to the community and engage in acts of Chesed as well. You make us proud and we hope that you continue to follow in the paths that we, your grandparents and great-grandparents have modeled for you.

Aviva and Avraham Simcha

From the Honorees

Mazel Tov to our dear friends

Tamar and Naftalee

We have seen up close and firsthand all that you have done for the Shul. After the years we spent running the shabbos morning groups and then on the board together, it is a privilege to share this honor with you as well. Your dedication to chessed and humility are an inspiration to us.

Mazel Tov to

Jordan and Eileen

Thank you for your years of dedication to the Shul and our children.

Thank you to all those who have given their personal time and worked extremely hard to put this beautiful dinner together and ensure its success. Having co-chaired this dinner before, we know firsthand the time and effort it takes to do it right.

Thank you to Rabbi Sobolofsky and Efrat for your constant support and guidance for our family and the entire Ohr HaTorah community. It is your leadership that has made Ohr HaTorah the Makom Torah, Tefillah and Chessed that we are proud to call our Shul.

Thank you to Rachael Swinkin and Elana Zachter for co-chairing this event. Thank you to all those on the dinner committee for all of your work on this dinner and especially to Michele Moskowitz and Sarah Savetsky for all your behind the scenes assistance. Very few people know the time and dedication (and especially the late nights) each of you have put in to all five of the annual dinners the Shul has held and so much of each of their successes are a result of your hard work.

Thank you to Gabe Hanauer and the current board for all that you do on behalf of the shul. Thank you to all those we have served on the board with, chaired the dinner with and worked on the many other Shul committees with. Our work together in all of these endeavors have led us to closer and deeper friendships and we are privileged to have such friends who value Torah and Chessed and are role models for us and our children.

Aviva and Avraham Simcha

To our parents, thank you for being constant sources of encouragement and support. As we have balanced our work, family, and shul responsibilities, we know we can rely so heavily on our entire family to help us. We couldn't do it without you, and we wouldn't want to either!

We thank our grandparents z"l, who were the best role models and whom we miss dearly. We recognize Naftalee's father, Dovid Eliezer Zomberg, for the love and importance of Torah he instilled in our family. His experience in Ohr Hatorah was brief, but he was impressed with the shul as a Makom Torah for our family – he was so very right and we miss sharing simchos with him in our shul.

Noam, Dov, Nava, and Eli, we are so proud of you – you are each amazing in your own way and we love you! We get tremendous nachas from watching you find your friends and fun at shul, and we look forward to you developing your love for Torah and for Yiddishkeit in Ohr Hatorah.

Rabbi and Rebbetzin Sobolofsky, we are honored to publicly thank you for your dedication to our community, to our shul, and to your focus on guiding us towards Torah. We are so lucky to have you as spiritual advisors and moral compasses for us and our children.

We express our heartfelt thanks to the co-dinner chairs Rachael and Elana, the entire dinner and journal committee, and all of the other members of our shul who volunteered their time to make tonight as special and as seamless as possible.

Thank you to Gabe and the entire board for their efforts on behalf of the shul and our community. We know firsthand how hard your jobs are, and we are so thankful for your dedication to the shul. May Hashem reward you with many brachos for everything you do!

Tamar and Naftalee

From the Honorees

Mazal Tov to

Avraham Simcha and Aviva

it is with great joy and pride that we are given the opportunity to share this evening with you. We appreciate the joint dedication and efforts you have put into making the shul into a real institution and a welcoming place for all. It is said that if you want something done, find the busiest people available and ask them to do the work for you. You find the time for your families, work schedules, and for the biggest family in Bergenfield: our shul. May you share great nachas from the fruits of your labor in our shul for many years to come! Mazal Tov!

Jordan and Eileen,

you have been in our shul for only a few years but you have made a permanent impact on all of our lives. We are honored to share this evening with you to pay tribute and celebrate your time as the soul of our youth department. We are thankful for the thousands of hours you have given to our shul, and the selfless, humble attitude you have displayed during this journey. Mazal Tov!

Tamar and Naftalee

From the Honorees

We acknowledge all of our fellow members and friends of Ohr Hatorah for making our Shul and community our favorite place to be. Nothing we did for the shul would have been valuable if not for everyone else's assistance and accomplishments. We accept tonight's honor on behalf of everyone who makes Ohr Hatorah so special and welcoming. Mi K'Amcha Yisrael!

Motzei Shabbos learning, Friday night FAQ's with the Rav, Thanksgiving football, the hashkama minyan, Purim puppet and parrot shows, the gabbaim, Shalosh Seudos for the men and women, Yossi Green and Ari Goldwag, how do you fit 300 people into a Yamim Noraim seating chart?, Kiddush food just appears on the tables, the Building committee, the youth groups curriculum, the Sisterhood, Simchas Beis Hashoeva events, who created the shul website?, board members who regularly sacrifice for the shul, guest speakers, Meet the Members, Shoresh mincha, someone's giving Daf Yomi and shiurim, at what hour of the night are the shul announcements assembled?, Chesed events, hockey and baseball tickets for learning in the shul, bounce houses, who coordinated the purchase and the construction of the Youth House?, Mommy and Me, all of the committees, Chulent Cookoffs and Cupcake Wars, Sunday morning learning and donuts, do the lights and air conditioning turn on automatically?, the entire youth department and all of the kids programs, boutiques for every Yom Tov need, who finds the Baal Koreh every week?, Challah Bake, the Ohr Hatorah night kollel, pre-Shabbos mishnayos for the boys, our photo book directory, someone buys the Ben and Jerry ice cream, Sukkah hops, who is willing to sit in the tent for the Yamim Noraim?, Mishloach Manos, junior congregation, there's a tissue box whenever you need one, and who pays for all of this???

There's something for everyone in our shul - and these are just the items we can think of. (Our apologies if we forgot anyone or anything.) Thank you to all of the volunteers for making the shul so exceptional – you know who you are.

May we continue to grow together and celebrate many more happy years together in the future.

Tamar and Naftalee

From the Honorees

We learn in Pirkei Avos 1:6 that "we should establish for ourselves a rebbi and acquire friends." In tonight's dinner, Eileen and I feel blessed to be apart of such a wonderful community whose members epitomize these tenets.

*Aviva and Avraham Simcha,
Tamar and Naftalee,*

have not only been friends and avid supporters of our Youth efforts, but have guided us in what it means to be wholeheartedly dedicated to building a place where our children and our future can strive and thrive. We are humbled to be joining them this evening and we wish both of them much mazal and bracha from all that they do.

We would like to recognize and express our utmost Hakarat HaTov to the Rav and Rebbetzin for welcoming us with open arms, for allowing us to work with the youth of the community and guiding us in building the program together. It is with their support, bracha and sensitivity that we were able to do all that we did.

Mazel Tov

on this well deserved honor!

From your time in NCSY, to your involvement in the Philadelphia community, to your commitment to Ohr Hatorah, you are true role models of what it means to be "oskim bitzarchei tzibur". Between each of your full time jobs (does traveling to exotic places in Europe constitute another job?), being amazingly dedicated and involved parents, coaching every sport offered in Bergen County, always creating personal and professional birthday cakes, and being on the board of RYNJ, we're amazed that you still find time to be so involved in your shul as well. You each have used your strengths to further the growth of your shul; your passion to educate and be marbitz Torah to help start youth groups and learning initiatives, and your creativity and attention to detail to organize mishloach manot and help run the shul dinner. Our running joke is that we look up to you, literally and figuratively, but in all seriousness, as our older brother you have taken the values that we saw so clearly in our home growing up and have set an example for us of how to implement them in our own homes. May Hashem continue to grant you the energy and ability to do all that you do and may you continue to go m'chayil l'chayil.

Since you moved in, you somehow always found time to make the Shul a priority in your lives. Whether running youth groups, taking care of the m'shloach manos, performing welcoming committee "duties", collating Shul announcements, organizing the Shul directory, building the Rav's sukkah, participating in father-son learning, doing anything that needs to be done anytime, as well as completing the many other behind-the-scene tasks that we don't even know about; Oh, and serving as a the president for 2 years.

We commend you and wish you good health, continued endless energy and the Koach to continue to serve the community and your wonderful family.
